How to be like Mike (2005) I set another goal - a reasonable, manageable goal that I could realistically achieve if I worked hard enough. I approached everything step by step. Now to be like Mike (2005) (In 1985, Jordan broke his foot and the management Krause, wanted to limit his return for fear of worsening the injury - the idea was to play seven minutes in each half) The [Bulls] came up with this whole theory seven minutes a game when I'm practicing two hours a day...I didn't agree with that math I wanted to play. I wanted to make the playoffs. Jerry [Reinsdorf] said, you had a headache and" - there was a 10 percent chance then I'd re-injure my ankle - "and you've got 10 tablets and one of them is coated with cyanide, would you looked at him and said, "How bad is the headache?" Jerry looked at me and said, "I guess that's a good answer, you can go back and play." Hall of Fame induction [Jerry Krause] said organizations win championships. I said, "I didn't see organizations playing with the flu in Utah." Hall of Fame induction address, 2009 I was 1994 and at this time had no thoughts of coming back and playing the game of basketball, Bryon Russell came over to me and said, "Why'd you quit? You know I could When I did come back in 1995 and we played Utah in '96, I'm at the center circle and Bryon Russell is standing next to me. I said, "You remember what you said in
